

#Boys&GirlsFacts

numbers that speak for themselves

10 the organizations included in the project

A health prevention and communication group of experts including:
University College Gent, Business Solutions Europa, Charles University, Edex, UTRIP, MAAS Research and Consulting, Mentor Foundation, AIDS-Fondet, G-EF-AS and Pronoi

#1

471000€

the cofunding received from the European Union to implement the programme

#2

9

the project duration in months (from Apr 2014 to June 2016)

#3

25

the episodes of the webseries "Boys and Girls" on which is based the Boys and Girls Plus prevention programme

#4

9

the language versions of the manuals (printable versions of the tools downloadable from www.boysandgirlsplus.eu)

#5

39

the social media based prevention programmes mapped before the development phase

#6

49

the stakeholders involved in the Boys and Girls Plus Roundtable "Public Health Issues and Creative Approaches to Engage Young People" held at the European Parliament

#7

9

the EU countries represented by the project partnership

#8

90

the pages of the programme manual organized in 6 modular Units

#9

>720

is the total number of pages translated in 8 European languages

9

The language versions of the online tools accessible from www.boysandgirlsplus.eu

#10

61 the workshops organized with young people to test the programme

158 minutes the average time of workshops

2000 the teens attending the workshops

70% of the teens saying they learned something for their lives from the programme

40% of the teens saying that they can use the new things they learnt in the future

#12

Contacts
www.boysandgirlsplus.eu
@BoysGirlsPlus

#11

Boys and Girls Plus is supported by the European Union's Civil Justice programme (2007-2013), the European Fund to strengthen Freedom, Security and Justice.

The views expressed are purely the authors' own and do not reflect the views of the European Commission.